

William McGivney, PhD

610.952.8758

bill@mcgivneyglobal.com

BioBrief

Bill McGivney is Managing Principal at McGivney Global Advisors LLC, a consulting company established in 2012 to advise pharma/biotech companies, investment houses, and informatics companies regarding the positioning and use of drugs, biologics and devices in the marketplace (please see www.mcgivneyglobal.com for full services).

Dr. McGivney has vast experience and expertise that he focuses on “real world” issues and strategies. Relevant key accomplishments are as follows:

- CEO of the National Comprehensive Cancer Network, NCCN (1997-2011)
- Founder of the NCCN Drugs/Biologics Compendium
- Vice President, Clinical and Coverage Policy, Aetna Health Plans (1991-1997)
- Member, Medicare Coverage Advisory Committee (2003-2007)
- Expanded NCCN Guidelines globally with specific Thought Leader Collaborations in Asia, the Middle East, and Latin America
- Liaison to the FDA for the American Medical Association (AMA) (1988-1991); received FDA Commissioner’s Medal of Appreciation for work on Treatment IND
- Developed and directed AMA’s Technology Assessment Program, DATTA (1985-1991)
- Ph.D. in pharmacology, University of North Carolina Medical School
- Postdoctoral Fellowship, Harvard Medical School